Instructions to Soldier

1. You will produce this book whenever you require an advance of cash on account, or when instructed to do so.
2. You will give a receipt, on the acquittance roll of the Officer paying you, for all cash advances made to you. The Officer making the payment will sign the corresponding entry in this book on the page for cash payments.
3. You will make no entries in this book, except to sign your name and enter your Army number on pages 7, 9, 11 and 13.
4. Should you lose your book you will at once report the loss to your Commanding Officer, when a new book will be issued to you, but it must be understood that no pay can be issued in respect of the period before the date on which you report your loss, until your balance has been ascertained from the Paymaster.
5. You should read carefully the information on pages 1, 2 and 3.

ARMY RATES OF PAY FOR LANCE-SERGEANTS AND BELOW

There are two separate Pay Codes for the Army as shown below :

- (1) THE POST-1925 CODE—for soldiers enlisted on and after 26th October, 1925, and those who enlisted before that date who have elected to be paid under the Post-1925 Code.
- (2) THE PRE-1925 CODE—for soldiers who last enlisted before 26th October, 1925, and have served continuously with the Colours, in the Reserve or T.A. Each Code has two sets of rates : Normal Rates for soldiers other than tradesmen, Tradesmen's Rates for soldiers qualified as such and mustered in a trade.

Tradesmen's Rates are divided into four groups, A to D, in each Code.

NOTES ON ARMY PAY FOR THE GUIDANCE OF LANCE-SERGEANTS AND RANKS BELOW

1. POST-1925 Corporals and Bombardiers on Normal Rates and Tradesmen Corporals and Bombardiers on Group D rates receive an increase of pay after they have held the rank for three years.
- POST-1925 Tradesmen, Lance-Corporals and Lance-Bombardiers on Group D rates receive an increase of pay when they have completed three years' reckonable man's service.
2. ALL PRIVATES, ETC., are placed in one of three classes—those on Normal Rates according to military efficiency, and those on Tradesmen's Rates according to trade proficiency.

3. CLASSIFICATION—On joining for service a soldier receives Class II Normal Rates of pay, will be classified by their C.O.s.—All Privates, etc., (unless they are tradesmen or qualifying as such)

- (a) After six months' service, and raised to Class I if efficient, and
- (b) After three years' service, and raised to Class IA only if thoroughly trained and efficient, what way he must improve to qualify for a higher class.
- A Private, etc., who has not attained the required standard of efficiency will be informed in service, according to his military efficiency, unless he is under training as a tradesman.
- A Tradesman Private, etc., if he falls below standard or fails to show diligence, can be distracted, or reverted to Normal Rates of pay Class II.
- All Classifications and Re-classifications are published in Part II or III Orders, from which the Paymaster adjusts soldiers' pay accounts.
- 5. INCREASES OF PAY for rank, service or for reckonable man's service are credited by the paymaster when due. Reckonable man's service counts from a soldier's PAY DATE.
- 6. THE PAY DATE is normally the date a soldier first joined for service, but former Colour towards increases of pay for service, or rendered before transfer to the Reserve, may be allowed to count if pay is forfeited for more than 28 consecutive days, the Pay Date is altered accordingly by the Paymaster, and future increases are delayed by a corresponding period.

ALLOTMENTS OF PAY

- (1) A Qualifying Allowance is deducted from the pay of soldiers who are married or have been granted Special Dependents Allowance, and paid to their wives or dependants in addition to Family Allowance or Special Dependents Allowance.

NOTES

1. The pay account of a soldier while on Active Service is normally kept by the Fixed Centre Paymaster concerned, and all communications relating to the soldier's account should be addressed accordingly. If serving in India, Burma or Ceylon the pay account is kept by the Chief Paymaster (British Troops in India), Meerut.
2. A soldier's entitlement for cash payment purposes is the net rate of pay recorded on pages 5 and 6, to which may be added any temporary emolument known to be due for the period covered by the cash payment.
